The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-7 and 12-15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Schmidt.

Claims 1-10, 12, 13 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Torkelson.

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 11 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Schmidt or Torkelson .

Schmidt and Torkelson disclose the invention except for the composite material. Official notice is taken that it is well known to provide composites or mixtures of various plastics as well as composites of paper lined or coated with plastic for serving plates and dishes. It would have been obvious to modify the material to be a composite to provide the desired properties of more than one plastic or more than one material, such as lightness in weight, ready availability, and low cost of paper and certain plastics, heat resistance of certain plastics, watertightness of certain plastics and structural strength of paper and certain plastics.
